BEST BOWLERS
EARN TROPHIES

The College Bowling League capped its 23-week season with an awards banquet Wednesday night at Griswold's in Redlands.

Eight trophies were awarded to top individuals.

The "Good Grief!" team took first place. The champions were John Alvino, Dale Lohmuller, Judy Lohmuller, Pam Silvey and Alan Silvey.

Taking second place was the Purchasing Department team of Tony Britto, Harry Edmondson, Sharon Ward, Lyn Young and Hal Young. Britto was the league's most improved male bowler, as he raised his average 31 pins to 141. Lyn Brosnahan, a student, was the most improved female bowler as she raised her average 11 pins.

Individual trophy winners were:

Judy Lohmuller, 468 series; Fred Cordova, 542 series; Sheila Stiles, 182 game; Dennis Kaping, 230 game; Dot Floyd, 640 handicap series; Steve Murdock, 644 handicap series; Tootie Dahl, 239 handicap game, and Berk Stevenson, 262 handicap game.

Kaping, a student, led the league with his 162 average, and Alvino and Stevenson shared second with a 147 average.

GUIDES AVAILABLE FOR TOURING GROUPS

Students are available to give guided tours of the campus to groups visiting CSCSB. Any College personnel who make arrangements for groups to visit the campus, and wish a guide to handle details of a tour, may make arrangements through the Publications Office. The guides also give tours open to the general public at 3 p.m. Sundays, starting from the main parking lot.

AUDIO-VISUAL HAS SCIENCE EXHIBIT

One of the more unusual exhibits in the Biological Science Building this week wasn't connected with the Inland Science Fair, which brought more than 400 young science students onto the campus.

L. George Lawrence, Director of Audio-Visual Services, designed a display-case exhibit titled "The Pigeon as a Biological Computer." The exhibit included a stuffed pigeon and a TV-type moving system illustrating Pavlovian research.

TRANSFERS
APPROVED
FOR STAFF

The Administrative Council this week approved a policy permitting lateral transfers after the employee completes his probationary period and with the permission of both supervisors.

Trustees - continued.

The new appointees replace chairman Donald M. Hart of Bakersfield and Gregson Bautzer of Beverly Hills.

Mr. Wente, a graduate of Stanford with an MS degree, is president of Wente Brothers Winery in Livermore and is director of the American Automobile Assn. Mr. Swim is also a graduate of Stanford and holds AB and MA degrees from the university. He is a Carmel Valley rancher and chairman of the Board of National Airlines.
